

CERTIFICATE IN MEN'S HAIR CUTTING

Is this the right course for me?

This course is suitable for qualified hairdressers and those working towards a level 2 qualification in hairdressing who would like to build their confidence in men's hair cutting. This qualification will count towards your CPD record.

What will I be doing?

You will be learning a variety of techniques used in the industry today including clipper art designs to enhance styles.

This will enable you to expand your client base by offering up to date styles

When does the course start and how long does it last?

10 weeks with 3 hours a week, Wednesday evenings

The provision of all classes is subject to sufficient enrolments and continued attendance.

Where will the course be held?

Lowestoft College - Room 312 Wednesday evenings 5.30pm – 8.30pm

What do I need to bring to the first class?

You will need to wear black top and black trousers. Bring a set of clippers, scissors, thinning scissors and pen and paper for note taking. Enthusiasm and an ability to colour will help you to achieve the final creative piece required for the qualification.

It is vital that you are able to provide a variety of models throughout the course.

How much will it cost?

Course fee	TBC
Materials	TBC

Assessment

Assessment will take place by portfolio evidence and practical assessment.

What should I do now?

Fill in an application form and return it to Sharon Brewer, Learner Services, Lowestoft College, Lowestoft, SUFFOLK, NR32 2NB. You will then be contacted and interviewed before the course commences to complete the enrolment process.
